The monster's lonesome and friendly
Wants you to be kind to what he is
But your fear and unacceptance
Provokes the beast in him.
Provokes the beast in him.

You're loved by the one who's not meant to be
Your love is not strong, it lacks empathy
You're loved by the one who's not meant to be
Your love is not strong, it lacks empathy

The monster wants to come inside
The monster wants to join your for tea
The monster wants to listen to your problems
How dare you ask the monster to leave

You're loved by the one that's not meant to be
Your love is not strong, you lack empathy
You're loved by the one that's not meant to be
Your love is not strong, you lack empathy

He's tearing off your roof
He's tracking you into the woods
He's tearing off your roof
He's dragging you into the woods

You should have been nice in the first place
Like I told you you should
You should have been nice in the first place
Like I told you
You should have been nice in the first place
Like I told you
You should have been nice in the first place
Like I told ya like I told ya like I told ya like I told ya

You're loved by the one that's not meant to be
Your love is not strong, you lack empathy
You're loved by the one that's not meant to be
Your love is not strong, it lacks empathy
