Follow you into this suicide Laugh and cry Place a foot into this city of refuge Carelessly mock those around us who Carefully lock those fears... surround them with lies Can it do harm? A burn to my skin From what I know From one deadly... Blaze the underbelly with no remorse Kiss the placid face of this frozen lake Taken by the screaming rhetoric Follow you into this suicide Can it do harm? From what I know From one deadly sin... A burn to my skin Bound by lust A flood of red From what I know Bound by lust Bound by trust
