

And You Will Know Us By The Trail Of Dead "Luna Park"

It hit my mind, it came to me
In order to live it's got to be freed

And all I want
Is this grace undone
It's haunting my head now
Like a prodigal son

Like a dog tired sage
You know I couldn't wait
I want to set this place aflame
Frame by frame

A lingering vision burning my memory
A scorching scene dying by the sea

Like a dog tired sage
You know I couldn't wait
To set this place aflame
Frame by frame

It didn't take long
To see it gone
Look at what I've done
I've seen it, want to feed it
Burn it down and just free it
I need it now
I need you right now

Night descends the fires rage
Through the morning light
