i've found peace of mind
i'm feeling good again
i'm on the otherside
back among the living

ain't a cloud in the sky all my tears have been cried and i can finally say

(chorus)
baby baby stay
stay right where you are
i like it this way
it's good for my heart
i haven't felt like this
in god knows how long
i know everything is gonna be okay
if you just stay gone

i still love you
and i will forever
we can't hide the truth we know each other better when we try to make it work we both end up hurt
and it ain't supposed to be that way

(chorus)
(so)baby baby stay

love aint supposed to be that way

(chorus)
just stay gone

i know everythings going to be okay
