My veins, my veins,
They're filling with hate,
It's giving me the feeling to go irate,
I grin, I tense,
I'm ready to kill,
Embrace the violence,
And do what you will.

Everyone around just listen to me,
Clench your fists and let it all free,
Your anger, your pain, emotions you store,
Release it now, kill them all!

Breakdown

I am inciting, fighting, to you.
I am provoking, there's choking to do,
So,
Listen to the verses let the hate fill your mind,
The man who stands near you prays for your demise,
He wants you to suffer, he wants to take your sight,
So scream, shout and punish him,
Scream and ...

Chorus

Fight! Fight! Fight!
Fight, Fight, for your life,
Fight! Fight! Fight!
Cos fighting will make it all alright.

Is he bleeding yet,
I don't think enough,
Cos the motherfucker fighting,
Claims that he's tough,
But we are the strongest,
We'll play our part,
In watching the weaker,
Get torn apart.

His heart his false,
He's violent with speech,
But when it comes to the violence,

We do what we preach,
It's taking a hold of me,
Why stay his soul?
Because the fury is building,
And it's taking control!

Chorus

Solos

Build-up

I wanna fight,
I wanna fight,
I wanna fight,
I wanna fight!

Here we stand,
Stand together,
Together we battle in crimson stains,
Now we await, the final storm,
The brutal war till just one remains.

Close your eyes,
Await the hate,
It's coming soon, direct to your core,
Now you're pumped with the souls of killers,
Fight, Fight, It's all against all!

Breakdown

Build-up 2
Are you ready?
Are you ready?
Are you ready?
Oooh!

Chorus
