I like to speed but,
Popo say no,
Speed is what I need,
From the word go!

Speedin' in my stolen ride,
A vision comes to my eyes,
A pram in the road,
My brain says no but my,
Heart says go!

Bounced off the bonnet,
Crimson on the paint,
The feeling is left,
As I accellerate.

Roads are icy,
I pay no heed,
A car swerves,
Comes off the road,
I think hes dead,
Full speed ahead.

A corner nears,
I don't want to stop,
I smash into a nursery,
Who gives a toss?

I run from the car,
Grin on my face,
Stepping on bodies as I race,
Down alleyways and away from the crime,
There's always next time.
