

Stretch Princess "Dying To Begin"

This is the one that I had to write
It's like a letter of love with no love left out
I get kind of stupid the way that I trip on my tongue
I'm saying everything but nothing comes out right

Ohh, I'm dying to begin
Falling in love with you
I'm dying to begin falling in love
I'm falling in love with you

You were the only one, the only one I cared about
It was a matter of time before the whole world found me out
I know I get clumsy when I get to hello
And goodnight sweetheart, never comes easy

Ohh, I'm dying to begin falling in love with you
I'm dying to begin falling in love
I'm falling in love with you
And don't let anybody tell you otherwise

Don't listen to their words
Don't listen to their lies
You are the only one I dream about
Again and again and again and again

Ohh, I'm dying to begin
Falling in love with you
I'm dying to begin falling in love
I'm falling in love with you
