Put yourself in my place and you won't know why
That I feel the way that I do inside
Letting me in but I'm finding you out this time

It's me heavy on me, take it easy on yourself
Heavy on me, it's just you and no one else

And you try to see it my way but you won't see
Why that I feel the way I do all the time
You're setting me up and I'm letting you down this time

It's me heavy on me, taking it easy on yourself
Heavy on me, it's just you and no one else
Heavy on me, taking it easy on yourself
Heavy on me, taking it easy
