Look at the light, it's brighter than this love
This is as dark as you want it to be
If this is the time those who still alive can find me
So this is love, it's your life

And nothing is taken or torn from you
But I love my world, it's all of my world and you
You can run, though you burn to give in
That you and I are one, is lost on me

I made this for you all that you can see
Nothing is as bad as you want it to be
At this moment your body is twisted
Near you lies one so what have you done

Bury me deeper and deeper and deeper
I'm getting deeper and deeper and deeper
Everything is so much deeper and you
You can run, though you burn to give in
That you and I are one is lost on me

It's lost on me, it's lost on me
Lost on me, lost on me
