(written by Stretch Princess) - This is a no way out cos I have a need to shine I have a need to shine with you and your hands releasing me come on and nothing me, this is the sweetest thing to do - that's why I'm with you...sugar, sugar sticking me to my babe...sugar, sugar sticking me to my babe, sticking me to my babe(3x) You come and take these things from me I know the world will scream oh so your head with it my dear. If killing me is much more fun slide down my side, slide down my side and we'll be done that's why I am your one....sugar, sugar sticking me to my babe - sugar, sugar, sticking me to my babe...sticking me to my babe(3x) [its why I'm your one] sugar sugar sticking me to my babe - sugar sugar sticking me to my babe - sticking me to my babe(3x)
