Visit "Twisted" on MotoLyrics.com

I've cut all ties that I've made
That make my heart love only
Some things you say
I feel with nothing to lose

That my fingers can touch every single part of you
That's all I want to do
Some lazy grace that you believe in
Someone like you is always leaving

I see you
You've nothing to say
No sense to it all
No love to make

We are nothing at all
Silent you, I wish you would scream
I'd fall onto my knees again
I could wait for you endlessly

Oh, it's where I want to be
Some lazy grace that you believe in
Someone like you is always leaving
It's where I want to be

Some lazy grace that you believe in
Someone like you is always leaving
Some lazy grace that you believe in
Someone like you is always leaving
