another day gone by with nothing said. another wish wasted another thought dead. crying to myself am i the only one. trying within myself but what's done is done. i once thought i knew a little bit, but now i know more about nothing...am i the only one? trying,
trying not to lose what is gone trying not to lose what is held
dear what is dear...trying, trying not to lose what is now gone.
trying to avoid what i fear- what i fear...move a little closer, move a little further away from me. strip away what sold dear. move a little closer, move a little further away from me my friend.put me in this place you know i fear...am i the only one...yes.
