

Strife "Still Raise"

stepping groundn lost, fallen through the sand of time. the security once known has been stripped back and exposed. strong hands wich before expressed support have now faded from my sight. strong hands scorn my eyes to darken the light...it just slips away...it burns- in my heart...i thought i knew what i was looking for. it thought i knew what i would find. i thought i knew what would become of me. it feels like i knew nothing. i figured out what was going wrong. in my heart i knew i'm strong. i figured out what went wrong. i feels like i took too long...too long...it burns- in my heart.
