o here we go, an international war and we're buying the voice to lie and justify the schore fight the confusion, anger and hate our shot in the darkness it's never to late one will and one heart a worldwide calling out for your muted voices we scream and shout our leader invoke their gods and their eyes glaze profits and prophets religoins of guilt and decay
will we fall
will we fight
black out in the daylight in world justice name
will we fall
will we fight
blackout in the wokryards of the killing game...
BLACKOUT i don't wanna fight BLACKOUT against our rights BLACKOUT won't take the life, the spoils of war we'll profit from no more
BLACKOUT won't take the life there are no saints, there are no patriots, designer gods fulfill their prophecy but they're not talking to me while crocodile tears pour from the tv well you were once boardroom tables apart while trading our reason for the businessman's art, how many fabricated enemies willl it take til we see?
will we fall
will we fight
black out in the daylight in world justice name
will we fall
will we fight
blackout in the workyards at the killing game BLACKOUT i don't wanna fight BLACKOUT won't take the light the spoils of war we'll profit from no more BLACKOUT don't wanna fight
BLACKOUT won't take the life

BLACKOUT against our rights. HERE WE GO!

there are no saints, there are no patriots designer gods fulfill their prophecy but they're not talking to me How many false enemies will it take 'til we see?
will we fall
will we fight
BLACKOUT in the daylight
will we fall
will we fight
