Outside and Inside
It's all part of the same ride
You don't have to run and hide
To Keep your eyes open for the rising tide

Outside and Inside
Where do you want to be?
What is it that you want to see? Can you be with someone and still be free?

Outside and Inside and Outside

Outside and Inside
No one wants to be denied Sometimes you want to cry when the air gets thick and your hands are tied

Outside and Inside
Now I am caught in between Isn't life just one long dream?
Can you get what you want and still come clean?

Outside and Inside and Outside
