Me and my friends went to dixieland Drove a big RV, with a cabinet full of mushrooms and a cooler full of beer

It was spring time in the mountains when we headed out of town the peaks were white, the sky was blue and the sun was beatin down we were rollin down the highway just havin a little fun we sure can drink alot of beer underneath that texas sun so i pulled into a liqour store and thats where the trouble all began cause i ran into their awning and we had a run in with the man

Get me out of this small town, texas town I don't wanna be stuck in jail, when the sun goes down But you can't bust me, if ya dont know what you found
