This Is America yeah it's true but everything else is false that was taught to me and you
but I try to sort it out I'll try to sort it out with you

Did you promise the world that you'd change it?
Sounds like the way that I feel
One brick thrown, one vote alone won't take back everything they steal we'll take back everything they steal

that was taught to
but
I try to sort it out

Shake It Up
Shake me 'til I wake from the coma All the distance distorted and lonely too so out of the target so out of the target I'm pushing you

Promised the world that you'd change it Sounds like the way that I feel

everything they steal

We're all walking forward

For every treaty broken:

annihilation tokens
for every treaty broken
