I Remember (Lyrics)

Verse 1:

I remember from back in the day I always got bullied and beat,
The kid they used to pick on by slapping and jumping on my feet,
And, the girls around paid no attention to me all discreet,
But said look there's that kid from school and laughed while walking down the street, I tried my best forget the times because I know there hard,
But everything what happened then inside my mind is scarred,
I never had any real friends, coz at the time,
Was never good looking enough to socialise so I was bared,

Chorus:

Every time I go to sleep and every time I dream,
It feels like everyone is there but I cannot be seen,
Every time I'm feeling down and every time I cry,
I look into the sky and say god where have you been,
Every time I go to sleep and every time I dream,
It feels like everyone is there but I cannot be seen,
Every time I'm feeling down and every time I cry,
I look into the sky and say god where have you been.

Verse 2:

I remember when my mother made me join the scouts along with sunny,
For the first time I laughed because the joke at me was funny,
And at the end the tuck shop opened so I ran to mummy,
And mummy would say I'm sorry son but we have got no money,
Then mummy told me lets go home I got food on the table,

It's your favourite rice along with beans and bread I know your grateful, Don't worry son one day we'll buy a big TV with cable,
But for the time being I know we were not financially stable,
Now it's my birthday I invited everyone from school,
And on the day when no-one turned up I was left looking a fool,
I past the parcel to myself and mummy on the stool, Who said don't worry son inside my eyes you will always be cool,
My will to succeed is far more greater then my previous scars, I'll never give up because my mummy said I've come too far,
Now look I have the money the looks and drive a flash car,
I may not be one, but to my mummy I am still a star.
Chorus:

Every time I go to sleep and every time I dream,
It feels like everyone is there but I cannot be seen,
Every time I'm feeling down and every time I cry,
I look into the sky and say god where have you been,
Every time I go to sleep and every time I dream,
It feels like everyone is there but I cannot be seen,
Every time I'm feeling down and every time I cry,
I look into the sky and say god where have you been.

Verse 3:

I remember the first time when writing lyrics was a hobby,
At the time was naughty and aggressive I got into trouble,
I started fights and people on the street would even rob me, Coz I thought I turned into a man because I grew some stubble,
I even done graffiti everywhere I could imagine, Even thou I never got caught my punishments would double,
I met a group of people who got me engaged in fashion,
Drifting away and it was my mummy who burst my bubble,
She told me listen son I see you growing everyday,
But now your out of line and moving from me further away,
My job in life is to look after you and so I pray,

Strikey look at me IÂ'm talking to you what did I just say, IÂ'm sorry mum but I now realise where I belong,
I never meant to hurt you now I realise that I was wrong, Ill keep at education even thou I know its long,
I love you mum, and on that point I started writing this song.

Chorus x2:

Every time I go to sleep and every time I dream,
It feels like everyone is there but I cannot be seen,
Every time IÂ'm feeling down and every time I cry,
I look into the sky and say god where have you been,
Every time I go to sleep and every time I dream,
It feels like everyone is there but I cannot be seen,
Every time IÂ'm feeling down and every time I cry,
I look into the sky and say god where have you been.
