I call you up on the phone
I call you up get you on the line
I call you up on the phone
But I cant see you smile
I think of you when Im gone
I think of you, honey, all the time
I think of you when Im gone
But I cant see you smile

How the story ends, baby, I dont know
And whats to come, I cant say
And how the story ends, baby, I dont know
Maybe Ill stop travelling some day.

I count the days while were apart
I count the days and I count the miles
I count the days that were apart
Until I can see you smile
I know that you feel just the same
You wish that I wasnt gone so long
I write this down from so far away
Now Im coming home

I love you theres no doubt
Your picture is hung above my bed
I look at it as were travelling around
But I wish I were holding you instead

Well its a long and windy road
Our love is strong and the futures bright
Its a long and windy road
Until we reach the light
I know things are going to be all right
Because youre in my dreams when I sleep at night
You turn around and you look at me
And I can see you smile

I can see you smile
