I'll Drive Away

I'll drive away what drives you insane (ooh)
I'll drive away what drives you insane (ooh)
I'll drive away what drives you insane (ooh)
I'll drive away what drives you insane (ooh)

The shadows kill, the shadows' kind
But they won't darken the shadow that's mine
I shine the light I set them on fire
shine the light, set them on fire (yeah)

I'll drive away what drives you insane (ooh)
I'll drive away what drives you insane (ooh)
I'll drive away what drives you insane (ooh)
I'll drive away what drives you insane (ooh)
Out of the light, and into the heart
I strike at the mind killer
And rip through the dark
In the moonrise in the twilight
As I'm weary, I will still fight
In the moonrise in the twilight
As I'm weary, I will still fight (yeah)

I'll drive away what drives you insane (ooh)
I'll drive away what drives you insane (ooh)
I'll drive away what drives you insane (ooh)
I'll drive away what drives you insane (ooh)
