Oh, well she says she's got it figured it out
She thinks it's getting better
I don't believe this and I'm never gonna let her

Well she says she's strong
Well I say she's crazy
Well she says I'm wrong
And I say well maybe

But when she's lying on the floor
And she can't take no more
But she knows the words to this one

You lead the way, you lead the way
You lead the way, away from here

Well there was a conversation
Well that's never gonna happen
It's about a relationship
But I was sitting there laughing

Well she thinks she's strong
But I think she's crazy
Well she thinks I'm wrong
And I say well maybe

But when she's lying on the floor
And she can't take no more
She knows the words to this one

I sympathize with what she's in
Let's face the music time again
She looks to me to sing along

You lead the way, you lead the way
You lead the way, away from here
You lead the way, you lead the way
You lead the way, away from

Away from here, away from here
Away from here, away from
Just when do you think that you gotta know

Where to go, away from here, away from here

Well she thinks I'm strong
I think well maybe
Well I've been so wrong, at least lately

You lead the way, you lead the way
You lead the way, away from here
You lead the way, you lead the way
You lead the way, away from here

You lead the way, you lead the way
You lead the way, yeah, yeah
You lead the way

Away from here, away from here
Away from here, away from
Just where do you think that you're gonna go
Do you know, do you know?
Just where do you think that you're gonna go
Away from here, away from here, away from here
