FAB:yall ready
ALBERT:ya
NICK:ya
Im takin on my way
And somehow i can see your life ripped down
And storefronts rarely change
At least im on my own again instead of travelin with you
Im sorry to say but sometimes you get in my way
And i lost my way again
O this is
This a chance
And i hope you never change
This life is on my side!
And i am your one
Believe me this is a chance ohh
Lets see wut is fo sale
I think we'll really make it if
But i aint sure
Its simpler with you
I take a breath or two
The signals don't seem right
It last fo just one night and than
Im sorry that i said
That we would just be friends
OHH ya
(guitar solo)
And i lost my way again
This is
This is a chance
And i hope u never change
This life is on my side
And i am your one
Believe me this is a chance
Whoa
