The sun drips down on a far away, ha ha, the place
today
And it seems so strange but it makes me feel all right.

Now and then, somehow when you're falling down
To peak your fill of emptiness
It's strange somehow you rise and fall through this life again
We drip away and never come back
We drip away and take a step back

Look at life

Today I stand on a plot of ground, we've washed away
I try so hard to forget it now, it lasts somehow.

Now it's gone, we've wiped away our only escape.
But I can't say or tell you why we are this way, but I'll tell you.
We drip away and never come back
We drip away and take a step back

Look at life in a whole new way.
