[Blueprint takling]

Yes, Soul Position

This is Blueprint, live from, the O-State

On the tracks we got, RJD2, of the Megahertz

Yo, I'd like to call this one love

Let's see some hands wavin', from side to side, you know?

Peace signs in the air on this one

It's all about love, not hate y'all

Let me know if you wit' me

Wave 'em side to side, two fingers up, to the sky you know?

[Blueprint]

It goes stop, look, listen to your heart

Stop look listen to the children

The answer's been with us from the start

The look in their eyes let's me know god's willin'

I'm a simple man, I don't have all the answers

But I know it starts in the hearts of men

And I don't think it's too much to ask for if you can't do it for you, do it for them

So you don't wanna' be a role model but like it or not, you're still makin' music for them

You just might be the one they follow so think about bein' a little more truthful to them

I promised that I'd never be ashamed of my rhymes and I'd leave behind something that's useful to them

Years ago I made up my mind and said, I'd never make life more confusing to them

What about you, you think it's to late?

There's no better time than right now for you to begin

But first you gotta' let go of the hate put your guns down

You wanna' fight?

Then do it with pens

Hold you head up and stand tall even when you lose in the end

What matters most is you gave your all so you can never in you life look stupid to them

The experiance you gained should be admired not just whether you lose or win Cause even gold must go through fire only to become brand new in the end I realize I can't change the world no matter how much I try But hopefully I can start with you one line at a time one rhyme at a time

[chorus]

Yo, all my people in the struggle (wit' me) one love
Time is so limited one life
I'm out doin' it all (y'all) one chance Tryin' to see the world but I'm just one man (x4)

[Blueprint talking]

My people in the struggle, one love y'all
No doubt..
