One more fix just a little bit of that heaven I found crawling in the sun to indulge in this game that'll set me free.
sitting, waiting, calling me

Another wasted night and here I am again promises remain just promises and I don't know why Why fight the temptation when it's all you've got I know what I want A moment of weakness is a moment of clarity when it's all I've ever known.

So I give in to the old ways of the past to start this off Lies to myself won't seem to justify the means Once again I drown myself, delivering from all I gained I've got no time to listen to your good advice I'm doin just fine, down on my own down here.
I know one day this dance will bring me to my knees it's only a matter of time before I fall again but that's alright.

It's the little things in life that always mean the most to me anyway, so what if I go with a little piece of heaven to take the edge away. over piece of mind I never had Just like the living dead I walk around this place Call it escape from reality, I call it lookin at the world
it's not too bad here it really clouds with both eyes open wide to the truth

I wanna burn my eyes out on the sun
I wanna be found smilin when I die here In heavens basement you're the one that killed me first another endless night goes down

One more fix just a little bit of that heaven I found crawlin in the sun sittin, waitin, callin me to indulge in this game that'll set me free, a moment of weakness is all I've got and it's all I've ever known another wasted night and here I am.
