i paint myself a window in this world of your conception where it all comes down to you you knew if you conceived it you knew i would believe it you knew that you would paint me into your world of

i got a ??? to find cant get you out of my mind you call it something to say you call it nothing to lose you call it anything but the truth suffocation in words i can hear your voice as it echoes on your isolation disturbs so bury over and over

i don't wanna lose
what you left inside of me cause it's all i own of you the songs you sing inside my head the red disguises secrets lies and the blue belongs to you alone the gold is time wasted

in lines of indecision dragging onward
the light in you that won't stay dead
what you left inside of me cause it's something real i hear the warm hum of your voice washing over me pulling me under a blue light melody of sound shines across my back and now its pulling me down gagged and tied to the weight of ourselves pulling me under to where hide yourself alone well i won't forget this loss underwater... the shame of regret turn darkness while i try to make it through out the lights and sit in there's a monster growing strong silence!

conspire to bring me down
silence!
i wont forget this life its all i own of you beginning of the rest of the future now and from now on Professor/scientist voice: This is the beginning, this is

there will simply be all these robots walking around, feeling to remind them that there once a species called a human nothing, thinking nothing, and there will be nobody left
being, with feelings and thoughts and that history and memory are right now being erased and soon nobody will really remember that life existed on the planet.
