I remember you
do you remember me too but on the 14th of July the smell of roses made her cry though your going far from home rest assured your not alone

Cause I would give everything that I own I'd give you my heart and this skin and these bones the sun the moon the Earth the sky I've never even stopped to wonder why I would do anything and I would give everything to be your everything

Seems like such a long long time since your body crossed my mind but I think that you should know it wasn't I who had to go

Cause I would give everything that I own I'd give you my love and this heart made of stone the sun the moon the Earth the sky the motorcycle that I like to ride I would do anything
and I would give everything
to be your everything

But if ever you should stray just sing along and I will play or look into your hands I'm slipping through them like a tiny grain of sand

I remember you
do you remember me too
seems like such a long long time since I held you near and called you mine

Cause I would give everything that I own
I'd give you my heart and this skin and these bones
the sun the moon the Earth the sky

a brand new car that you and I could drive I would do anything
and I would give everything
to be your everything
