You've compromised your doctrines
(You've compromised your doctrines)
You've surrendered yourself to fashion
(yourself to fashion)
(Come back to your faith; Come back to grace) (x2)
(He sang with us and loved others)
The death of obsession
The blood relationship, creates such a rotten demise
Oh Lord
(Such blackness portrays the love of a machine)
(I did not want you to join this culture) (x2)
(So how can you be so proud?) (x2)
Pray to the heavens, with whatever it takes
(With whatever it takes)
(I wish to shine this light back upon you)
(Back upon you)
(It's obvious that apocalyptic, apocalyptic barriers)
You've compromised your doctrines.
(No mercy to fashion)
You've surrendered yourself now
