I ain't afraid of your bad mouth gun
You can shoot and run any time, babe
I'll survive in the ice cold stare
That you learned to wear so unkindly

Bette Davis and Patsy Cline
Ain't got nothin' on you
Hillbilly angel and Hollywood
I see through you, babe
I see right through you

You'll never break this heart of stone
No matter how you try
I ain't the one who's all alone
You'll never break this heart of stone

I know you're lookin' at someone new
So here's to you, what's the mystery
Do you want me to fall apart
Honey, in my heart, it's history

Pardon me if I missed a cue
For someone who cares
You just wanted to drive me on
But you won't wear, babe
You just can't tear me

You'll never break this heart of stone
No matter how you try
I ain't the one who's all alone
You'll never break this heart of stone

Ah, you'll never break this heart of stone
No matter how you try
I ain't the one who's all alone
You'll never break this heart
You'll never break this heart
You'll never break this heart of stone
