It's not too late to forget who you are
And what you think you could prove
Give it up, let it go
This game thrown my way
I feel my head explode
Consciousness shown in it's purest form
You're dead wrong
You swear your eyes are open and fixed on truth
Accomplice spits in your face
And that works for you?
Supposed friends destroyed by
Bridges burnt
Slip of the tongue
Before my ear turns a flood
You're dead wrong
Reflect on what's been lost
Peel back the scar that seals an open mind
You're dead wrong
Always will like dead wrong
