I was only sixteen with no dedication
my studies went downhill girls were my new sensation
First time to talked to me
I couldn't help but stutter
This is so new to me
I think I found my lover

Meet me under the covers
Lets take a break from school
Just what the doctor ordered
Lets play by our own rules

I struggle with my needs
Her curves my inspiration
My heart she has the key
And all the combiations
Her flaws they don't exist
She seems so picture perfect
This is so new to me
I think I found my lover
GO!

Met me under the covers
Lets take a break from school
Just what the doctor ordered
Lets play by own own rules

By our own, by our own
By our own rules
By our own, by our own
By our own rules
...By our own rules
