Looking Back at the past
Remembering times when we were young
Day dreaming through class
Trying to figure out whats to become

Looking up at the sky
Wondering just how to get by
But don't you worry
Just listen to me

Don't never back down just take your time
Don't lose your mind just enjoy the ride
And I know we'll be just fine
Just catch your breath and don't hold back
Don't let your feet slip off the track
And I know it will be just fine

When you're kicked to the dirt
Just stand up and hold your ground
And even though it might hurt
Don't you cry or make a sound

Looking up at the sky
Wondering just how to get by
But don't you worry
Just listen to me

Don't ever back down just take your time
Don't lose your mind just enjoy the ride
And I know we'll be just fine
Just catch your breath and don't hold back
Don't let your feet slip off the track
And I know it will be just fine

It's your time
your time to show the world the truth
To show a different side of you
Keep your head up high
Never say goodbye

Your time to show the world the truth
To show a different side of you

Keep your head up high
Never say goodbye
