When everything goes wrong
and
nothing seems to heal
all the
wounds
that i made you feel
and
everything so dark
no one can understand
all the mass
emotions
words
unspoken
everything's
unsaid!

Bringing you down
wasn't in the plan
but i guess
this should happen
our love was supposed to last
but now is a
thing of the past
counting the
days until the end
why does this
happen?
my whole life thrown to
the ground
now i have to get
back!

When everything goes
wrong
and nothing seems to
heal
all the wounds
that i made
you feel
and everything so

dark
no one can understand
all
the mass emotions
words
unspoken
everything's
unsaid!

counting the days until
the end
why does this happen?
my
whole life thrown to the ground
back!

When everything goes
wrong
heal
you feel
words
unspoken
everything's
unsaid!

wrong...
heal...
all the wounds, that i
made you feel....
that i made you
feel
