I lived beyond my fears

Until my years

Have withered me, delivered me
Divinity and you'll Never catch me on my knees

Ride upon my horse so mighty
Hated both the black and white
Always constant never falter

Rage like fire move like water
(This hate makes me a better man
My hate helps me take a stand)
Strong inside, clear of purpose

Heart of stone, never nervous
Never hidden never ran
So hate me with all you can Hate Breed (I've fallen in with the hate breed)
You wanna feel the rush until the crush has beat you down spins you around The hate you found and your rage will never let you down

Strike them down with all your fury
Judged with hate the acting jury
Always swift with no deliberation justice done purification
