Welcome, my dear friend
I notice you are wearing your armour again
Is it the same as our last fight?
Is it residue from last night?

Well, I guess I have extended it
I tried to bend it a bit
There was a crack under the chest frame
And a loose screw on the left steel hand

I have to be patient now
I'll wear this edition somehow
Tell myself that it's alright
Pick up the loose screws one more time

'Cause this armour's different pieces
Were delivered from different places
With their own delivery dates
I have no choice but to wait
