The chosen words were spoken
The mystery's half-broken
The seventh veil enfolds her

I lay myself beside her
In sweet and sensuous silence
I lay myself beside her

In aerobic spinaround
...around...
In wider circles
...atom...
...raindrop...
...sun...
In aerobic turnaround
...down...
...down...
In
Free
Fall
Starglow glide

The gate remains wide open
A whole life passes over
I lost myself inside her
