The return of the friendly card
Invites you to play with the fire
But the joker is closing his eyes
If your stake's getting higher and higher

The reaper smiles, the ten is cut
The jack is allyin' with the queen of spades
The ace is low but the king is high
And little devil plays another lie with you

Total conclusion
The ultimate deed is done
Burnt with the trident
And little devil has won

No bluff is succeeding tonight
And your partner is highly contented
Your play of the features denies
But the stake of your soul will be granted

The reaper smiles, the ten is cut
The jack is allyin' with the queen of spades
The ace is low but the king is high
And little devil plays another lie with you

Total conclusion
The ultimate deed is done
Burnt with the trident
And little devil has won
