I sit alone in my chamber
I sit and stare into the void
And feel alone
There is just one ray in my chamber
A big old mirror on the wall
Or a secret gate to the unknown
I must leave the coldness
Of this world behind I have to hide away
Where I can't be found

I am hypnotized by the mirror's shine
I am hypnotized by the mirror man
Show me the way to you
I watch myself in the mirror
A big pale man is all that I see Is it me?
I focus on my own pupils
A silver frame is all that I see I disappear
I'm flying through quick silver
With the speed of thoughts
I am within the mirror
In a timeless world

I am hypnotized by the silver shine
I am hypnotized by the mirror man
Show me the way to you

Nobody just the mind in this place of light
This place of light, a place of light
To observe the world from behind the mirror

In this place of light
Just quick silver shine
I see the world like nobody can
No ticking time Time

I come back to my mirror
And I wonder what if I'm still sitting still there
But the only thing I see is an old chair
Not me
It's the only thing
You see

There are many places
The eyes cannot see
An immaterial world
Where I can be free

I am hypnotized by the mirror's shine
I am hypnotized by the mirror man
The eternal mind is reality
But it's hard to find what the eyes can't see
I am hypnotized by the mirror's shine
I am hypnotized by the mirror man
I have seen the mirror man
I became the mirror man

You see a man in the mirror
Is it you Or is it me?
