The bringer of fear is on the dark side
Your valley of dreams is on the wild side
Don't turn your head
Gimme your light and gimme shelter
I wanna feel your - oh no
But you're crying for his love

Baby I know what you're dreaming of
Don't expect too much

But open your heart
Show me what's on - show me your sun
Open up your heart and gimme the light of your day
Open up your heart and the fear will be gone
Oh your heart is hiding more than you just know
When will you finally know - will you ever know

The bringer of grace is on the bright side
Your valley of dreams is on the right side
And you're so cool
Oh what a night you want sensation
Breakin' away and flash in
Oh no - and you're crying for his love

But open your heart
Show me what's on - show me your sun
Open up your heart and gimme the light of your day
Open up your heart and the fear will be gone
Oh your heart is hiding more than you just know
When will you finally know

Fight down your brother - denounce your mother
I am the stealer - you are the healer
No - oh no - don't do it - YES
Keep clear of sunlight - don't live in daylight
Never stand upright - never believe
No - oh no - don't do it

Open your heart
Show me what's on - show me your sun
Open up your heart and gimme the light of your day

Open up your heart and the fear will be gone
Oh your heart is hiding more than you just know
