As the light fades
My desire starts to emerge
My sole salvation
From these emotions I search

Come on inside
Into my circle of pain
Annihilation of hope
Purity and love
Hatred is all that remain

There is blood on my hands
There is blood on the riversand
Oh red red stains of gore
I wanna sleep forever more

A burning sensation
As I slowly rip your skin
To take you away
From the burden of sorrow and sin

Come on inside
Into my circle of pain
Annihilation of hope
Purity and love
Hatred is all that remain

There is blood on my hands
There is blood on the riversand
Oh red red stains of gore
I wanna sleep forever more
