"Stormbringer"

Can you hear the thunder
As it's closing in
An perpetual force
To away your sin

In the eye
Of the hurricane
I'll be waiting
The thunderbane
Stormbringer

I'll rip the sky in two
And as you're screaming in fear
All you know and love is lost
As the storm draws near

In the eye
Of the hurricane
I'll be waiting
The thunderbane

You all will hield as the stormbringer comes
To unleash my fury on the world
You all will burn as the tempest returns
As the stormbringer comes
