Have you ever had the strange feeling
Someone's watching you?
Did you ever wonder
Why you are acting like a stupid fool

A force that hides in the shadows
The unknown thief of our will
Cold and soulless
It feeds our needs and greed to be

Our lives controlled by
Calculation towers
The calculation power
The calculation towers
Designed for global power

The conscience cannot sense it
Cannot sense controlling energy
But sometimes we still wonder
Why we are not what we used to be

A force that hides in the shadows
The unknown thief of our will
Cold and soulless
It feeds our needs and greed to be

Our lives controlled by
Calculation towers
The calculation power
The calculation towers
Designed for global power

We can't defend ourselves
'Cause man can only fight what he can see
We think therefore we are
So we're so sure that we are free

A force that hides in the shadows
The unknown thief of our will
Cold and soulless
We are deceived to feel free

Our lives controlled by
Calculation towers
The calculation power
The calculation towers
Designed for global power
