

Stygma IV "Madness"

Is this the way to madness?

The worlds are colliding
There's no place for hiding
A state of confusion
Search for a conclusion

Another day, another night
Another crack within my mind
Another face, another place
I don't know who I am

Is this the way to madness?

Reality is just a shadowplay
Insanity is calling me

Words without meaning
Sleep without dreaming
I am deranged how life has changed
So strange

Another day, another night
Another crack within my mind
Another face, another place
I don't know who I am

This is the way to madness

Reality is just a shadowplay
Insanity is calling me
I'm on my way to madness

The worlds are colliding
It's so hypnotizing
A state of confusion
From dead an illusion

Another day, another night
Another crack within my mind
Another face, another place
I don't know who I am

This is my way to madness

Reality is just a shadowplay
Insanity is calling for me
Reality is just a shadowplay
Insanity is calling me

This is my way to madness
I'm on my way to madness
