Have you seen it coming?
Have you seen it coming after me?
It changed my senses, it has transformed my life

I hid my feelings deep inside
Each day of life no matter how I try
My failure reveals
Each day and night of my hopeless fight
My failure reveals

Have you seen me running, running, running?
Have you seen me running through this travesty?
I have lost faith in my shattered life

My guilty conscience deranged my mind
Each day of life no matter how I try
My failure reveals
Each day and night of my hopeless fight
My failure reveals

I have lost my will and faith
I don't want to live my shattered life

My guilty conscience deranged my mind
Each day of life no matter how I try
My failure reveals
Each day and night of my hopeless fight
My failure reveals

Each day of life no matter how I try
My failure reveals
Each day and night of my hopeless fight
My failure reveals
