In this world so stabilized
We're living safe within

Everything seems to be alright
In our regulated lives
What is hiding in the blinding haze
The entry into a knotted maze
Of desire, greed, lust and hate

We're well disguised, jeopardized, paralyzed
Tranquilized, socialized, stigmatized
Brutalized, scrutinized, scandalized
We're well disguised, jeopardized, stigmatized
Stigmatized

All the minds are hypnotized
We walk on the mainstream

But there is something we'll never find
A precious thing called peace of mind
If we are honest to ourselves
We are locked up in golden cells
Of despair, solitude, grief and lust

We're well disguised, jeopardized, paralyzed
Tranquilized, socialized, stigmatized
Brutalized, scrutinized, scandalized
We're well disguised, jeopardized, stigmatized
Stigmatized, oh yeah

We will never really see
Our lives are just a travesty
Of desire, greed, lust and hate

We're well disguised, jeopardized, paralyzed
Tranquilized, socialized, stigmatized
Brutalized, scrutinized, scandalized
We're well disguised, jeopardized, stigmatized
Stigmatized
