Can it be a part of me has changed alot
That you have come into my life and brought so much
With your sweet loving ways
I don't want to change
Sweet loving ways
Let me just say
That your sweet loving ways have saved

I remember watching you from far away
Now my love grows stronger near you every day

With your sweet loving ways
I don't want to change
Sweet loving ways
Let me just say
That your sweet loving ways have saved

Every night in your bed
Every day in my head
How those nerves sound so dear
As I hold you so near

You saved me, you saved me

Sweet loving ways
Don't you change

Every night in your bed
Every day in my head
How those words sound so clear
As I hold you so near

Can it be a part of me has changed alot
That you have come into my life and brought so much

With your sweet loving ways
I don't want to change
Sweet loving ways
Let me just say
That your sweet loving ways
I don't want to change

Sweet loving ways
Let me just say
That your sweet loving ways
With them I'm saved
Sweet loving ways
I don't want to change
Sweet loving ways
Let me just say
That your sweet loving ways
With them I'm saved
