I am the dark inside you
I am the one who guides you
I know each filthy secret
I know you are my man
I help you find the way
I let you see another day
I live inside your brain
I'm also pumping through your veins

I'll take you by the hand
We'll be drifting to a space
Where the light is gone forevermore
The time will come to understand
That your last groan is close at hand
The flash will die the soul lives on
Day by day you're fading away
Day by day you're fading away

Your blood is pumping faster
Cause you got a disease
Your skin begins to boil
You fall down on your knees
Your blood is pumping faster
Cause you got a disease
You can hardly take a breath he devil's sitting on your neck
I know you are afraid to die
But I can't find the reasons why

I'll take you by the hand
We'll be drifting to a space
Where the light is gone forevermore
The time will come to understand
That your last groan is close at hand
The flash will die the soul lives on
Day by day you're fading away
Day by day you're fading away

Deep within the dark
You will find a spark
That lights you through the void
You will find a deep tranquillity within

Then you will justify
The deeds you did
The way you've lived
The court of eternity
Will pronounce a verdict
You may be reborn
Or you'll come with me

I'll take you by the hand
We'll be drifting to a space
Where the light is gone forevermore
The time will come to understand
That your last groan is close at hand
The flash will die the soul lives on
Day by day you're fading away
Day by day you're fading away

The court of eternity
Will pronounce a verdict
The court of eternity

I'll take you by the hand
We'll be drifting to a space
Where the light is gone forevermore
The time will come to understand
That your last groan is close at hand
The flash will die the soul lives on
Day by day you're fading away
Day by day you're fading away
