"When You Call Me"

I know you have time
But believe me, it will fly by
And if it don't treat you right
I want you to know that you can call me

Into each life, some rain must fall
But if the storm becomes too much for you all
Don't be afraid to enter my life
I will be there when you call me

Call me, to call me, call me, if you need to call me

Don't let your pride get in the way
Of your view of how we used to be
Oh, to you it's long ago, but to me yesterday

The passing of time's like the crashing of waves
It wears down on your memory and you can't forget
That if it all gets too much, I will always be there
For you to call me, oh, if you need to call me

Into each life, some rain must fall
But when the storm becomes too much for you all
Don't be ashamed to enter my life
I will be there when you call me

Oh, when you call me, call me, call me, call me
Call me, call me, call me, call me, and you can call me anytime
