Start again
Tell me how your feeling friend
Will you be okay?

You used to be so strong
What went wrong?
Can you make it through this one more day?

And when it all goes down
I'll still be here waiting
And when it all goes down
I'll never stop believing

Listen, I have something here to say
I heard you crying and you pleaded
I want nothing but to wipe your tears away
I want to be everything you needed

The night wore on
The pouring rains still far from gone
Will you be alright?

If tonight weren't so hard
You may have never made it so far,
I'll be with you tonight

And when it all goes down
I'll still be here waiting
And when it all goes down
I'll never stop believing

Listen, I have something here to say
I heard you crying and you pleaded
I want nothing but to wipe your tears away
I want to be everything you needed

I know it's hard to see, but you've gotta believe
It's alright to cry
Don't be afraid, I'll wipe your tears away

I'll never leave your side

One more night and this will be alright
