"Red"

If we stop the clock from ticking by
If we turned tonight on you and I
Would you call me
Would you tell me its alright
Would you leave me
Would you leave me hanging on, goodbye

If time stood still
Would you be here tonight
The moment waits
Fate takes its place
I'll wait for you always

So tell me
Are you lonely without me baby

If time stood still
Would you be here tonight
The moment waits
Fate takes its place
I'll wait for you always

My eyes run red from blood we've shed
But i'll never stop missing you

If time stood still
Would you be here tonight
The moment waits
Fate takes its place
I'll wait for you always
